

Curriculum Vitae - Raficq Abdulla

Raficq Abdulla read Jurisprudence at Oxford and was called to the Bar in 1964 . He was formerly the University Secretary and legal adviser to Kingston University and is now a Visiting Fellow of the University. He is also a writer, public speaker, and broadcaster.

Raficq has had extensive experience in the private and public sectors working as a Company Secretary/Legal Adviser to several companies and organisations including: Beecham Group plc, Lex Service Group plc, Harris Queensway plc, and Scope. His experience has enabled him to develop a high level of expertise in governance issues working at board level, and corporate structures. He is also experienced in coaching and mentoring.

He is an Associate Director of the South West London and St George's Mental Health NHS Trust where his particular remit is governance and equality.

In 1999, he was awarded an MBE for his interfaith work between Muslims, Jews, and Christians.